Complainant's Rights Description required by Section 55-530-E.2 of the Virginia Code

In accordance with Section 55-530.F of the Code of Virginia, as amended, an Association Complainant may give notice to Virginia's Common Interest Community Board (the "Board") of any final adverse decision in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Board. The notice shall be filed within 30 days of the final adverse decision, shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the Board, shall include copies of all records pertinent to the decision, and shall be accompanied by a $25 filing fee. The fee shall be collected by the Director of Professional and Occupational Regulation and paid directly into the state treasury and credited to the Common Interest Community Management Information Fund, § 55-530.1. The Board may, for good cause shown, waive or refund the filing fee upon a finding that payment of the filing fee will cause undue financial hardship for the member. The Director shall provide a copy of the written notice to the Association that made the final adverse decision.
